

DUNNE APPEALS TO WILSON THAT U.S. MAKE FIGHT

URGES THAT FEDERAL GOVERNMENT ASSUME FIGHT AGAINST CATTLE DISEASE.

GRAND JURY IS INVESTIGATING

DuPage County Jurors Start Looking Into Methods of the State Officials.

The DuPage county grand jury today opened an investigation of methods used to stamp out the hoof and mouth disease among cloven-footed animals of the county.

Serious charges of alleged misconduct have been made against state officials by many farmers and cattle owners.

The grand jury's plan became public on the heels of the opening of an investigation by a special committee of the state board of agriculture into the best method of coping with the extraordinary situation, and the assurance that not only a legislative but a congressional investigation would also be started.

Dunne Appeals to Wilson.

Coincident with the opening of the various inquiries Gov. Dunne addressed a letter to President Wilson asking that Illinois and the other fifteen states affected by the scourge be relieved of the responsibility of combating it, that the federal bureau of animal industry be delegated to the task and that the government pay the full expense.

Under present conditions half of the expense is to be borne by the government and half by the states, if appropriations can be obtained. The governor sounds the warning that if this system is followed it may result in a lack of co-ordination.

Because of Chicago's position as the greatest livestock market in the world the governor says there is a strong probability that infected animals will be sent in from other states.

London, Dec. 29.—Correspondence of the associated Press.—A letter from Warsaw says that in marching Russian soldiers present an odd picture.

"The Russian regiments on the march are the most informal organizations in the world," it says. "Ahead ride a few officers and then, in no particular formation, come the troops some on one side of the road and some on the other. Toward the rear they straggle off in dwindling streams wandering about the fields and plodding here and there, just as though each man was off on an individual tour."

"For miles after a regiment has passed one sees little groups trudging along, apparently perfectly contented and without a worry in the world. Yet at night they all appear for rations."

Sherman Fights To Stop Killing Diseased Stock

Offers Resolution For Investigation of Foot and Mouth Epidemic

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Senator Sherman started a fight in the senate today to prevent further slaughter of cattle afflicted with the foot and mouth disease until an investigation has been made to determine whether the killing is necessary.

The Illinois senator introduced a resolution directing the senate committee on agriculture to investigate and report to the senate immediately its findings with respect to the necessity of killing all cattle so affected. The senate several weeks ago authorized an investigation of the epidemic by the agricultural committee but the inquiry has been dropped.

"Cattle worth millions of dollars," said Senator Sherman today, "have been ruthlessly slaughtered by representatives of the federal department of agriculture and various state governments."

Charges "Mania for Killing."

"It looks to me as if these men have gone wild with a mania for killing something. Whenever a case appears in a herd the entire herd, regardless of its value, is immediately destroyed."

"I have tried to get some light on the subject but have failed. If this wholesale slaughter is not stopped the stock breeding and feeding and dairy industries in this country will be destroyed."

Senator Sherman said he had looked into the campaigns against the foot and mouth disease in other countries.

"It is not necessarily a fatal disease," said the senator. "Statistics in Germany show that only 2 per cent of the cattle afflicted die. No study of the disease has been made."

THOS. FORD INJURED BY BREAKING WHEEL

Thomas Ford was injured at about 8 o'clock this morning while employed in the grinding room at the Grand Detour Plow shops by the bursting of an emery wheel over which he was at work. Fortunately he escaped without sustaining any broken bones, but was painfully injured about the face and hands. He was taken to the hospital where his injuries were dressed.

Mr. Ford had placed a slow speed emery wheel on the shaft with which to do some polishing and through an oversight turned on the high speed gear and the rapidity with which the wheel was revolving caused it to break as soon as anything came in contact with it to retard its speed. Flying parts struck Mr. Ford, he was knocked down and in falling his head struck on a plow share which lay on the floor.

AURORA WIFE HERE TODAY SEARCHING FOR HER HUSBAND

RALPH HAMMOND HAS BEEN MISSING FROM HOME SINCE JANUARY 1ST.

APPLIED FOR WORK IN DIXON

On Failure to Secure Employment In This City He Went to Sterling.

Where is Ralph Hammond of Aurora? His wife and son are searching for him and they want him to come home to them. On New Years night he disappeared and since then they have had no word from him although it was established today that Hammond spent three days in Dixon since his sudden disappearance.

Mrs. Hammond, worn and ill from worry and fruitless search, arrived today from her home in Aurora. An aunt in Bay City, Mich., had written her that she had received an express package from Hammond sent from Dixon. Mrs. Hammond came to the police and enlisted their aid in searching the city, but the man could not be found, although ample evidence of his presence here recently was forthcoming.

Was Out of Work.

Her story was that Hammond had been out of work for several days and had become despondent, and on the evening of January 1st she and her husband and their 17-year-old son attended a meeting at the Y. M. C. A., which is next door to their home. During the evening Mr. Hammond excused himself and after asking his wife to hold his chair for him, left, saying he would return immediately. The entertainment was finished, but he had not returned, and his wife and son went home alone. Upon arriving there they found a note, which read:

"I don't know where I am going, but will let you know. I am so despondent. Ralph."

Applied for Work.

Investigation by the Dixon police showed that on Sunday, January 3rd, the man applied in Dixon for work at his trade, horseshoeing. For the next three days he was around here and registered at the Bishop hotel. He asked for work in nearly all the blacksmith shops and upon being unsuccessful went to Sterling, upon the advice of a traveling man. Mrs. Hammond left this noon for Sterling to continue her search.

The express package which Hammond sent to Bay City on January 6, contained models of irons for ironing clothes, upon which he expected to obtain a patent.

Mrs. Hammond describes her husband as being short, heavy-set, smooth shaven and having four gold teeth in front. He wore a light gray overcoat with a small stripe in it.

The man had $45 when he left home. His wife and boy are without means of support. Mrs. Hammond ascribes his mysterious disappearance to his despondency over lack of employment and believes he might have been a trifle unbalanced. He was a very religious man and of good habits.

WAS BURNED WITH HOT COFFEE

R. H. Wadsworth suffered very painful burns about the face Wednesday afternoon while at work cutting timber near Lowell park when some coffee, which he was heating over a stove was blown into his face. The hot liquid struck him in the eyes, but the physician who attended him does not think the injuries will be permanent.

COWS AND SHEEP ON THE BERT HOYLE FARM WERE EXECUTED AND BURIED.

NO NEW CASES REPORTED

Day Has Passed Without Any Addition to List of Quarantined Herds.

The first execution of cattle afflicted with foot and mouth disease in the epidemic which has broken out in this vicinity took place today on the Bert Hoyle farm in Palmyra township where 31 cattle and 14 hogs, all of the herds, were killed and buried in a big trench. The execution was under the direction of Federal Veterinarian Dr. G. M. Otis, who remained on the ground until the last creature had been killed and their carcasses had been buried in lime.

Other Herds Condemned.

As far as can be learned all of the herds in this vicinity which have been quarantined have been ordered killed by the government inspector. TWO CASES SETTLED JURY IS EXCUSED WORK IN CIRCUIT COURT THIS WEEK HAS BEEN EASY FOR JURORS.

The jury work in the circuit court has not amounted to much this week but one jury case having been tried. The case of Leo A. Ritter against Oscar Hamilton set for this morning was settled out of court and the suit was dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff. The plaintiff went into the melon patch of Mr. Hamilton along the Northwestern railway in Nelson township last fall and had picked up a melon and had started out with it when he heard the discharge of a gun and in another second he felt the effects of the shots. It appears that Mr. Hamilton had suffered the loss of many melons each day and he had resolved to put a stop to the practice and so lay in wait for the first person who entered the patch, and young Ritter happened to be the unfortunate person. The case was tried last September and the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for one dollar. A new trial was asked for and granted by the court.

The case set for tomorrow has been disposed of and hence the jurors were excused until Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when the case of Theiss vs. Kochler is set for hearing. This is a suit in which rent is involved. The plaintiff had brought the suit to collect on back rent and the defendant offsets the claim on the ground that he had to expend over $100 in the erection of a hog house and other necessary improvements, which under the lease the plaintiffs should have done.

DO YOU WANT THE NEWS?

If you do, you must read the Telegraph. This paper has been singled out for a great deal of praise and complimentary notice for the manner in which it has handled the news of the foot and mouth epidemic and for the special articles it has printed along the same line.

The real vital news of the foot and mouth contagion has appeared in the Telegraph first, and the reading public is showing its appreciation of this fact in a most gratifying and substantial manner.

We are also receiving commendations for the editorial stand on the slaughter of the cattle and the methods the government is using to stamp out the disease.

Shepler Pulled Similiar Stunt In Danville In 1886

Danville Press: Hollie Shepler, handcuffed to another prisoner, one of the two men who escaped the sheriff's posse near Oregon, Ill., a few days ago and Detective John Halls staged almost the same incidents that are occurring now during the summer of 1886. Shepler's hobby appears to be for fighting officers, especially sheriff's posers.

During 1886 the Frazier store at Georgetown was burglarized. Detective Halls and Cal Davidson were sent there to arrest Shepler suspected of being the guilty person. Shepler jumped from a second story window and eluded the officers.

Shepler ran west to the Big Four tracks. At the depot he met the Georgetown constable. He drew a revolver and held the officer and a gang of section hands at bay while he escaped to the home of an uncle where he obtained a horse and fled to Hedrick, Ind. He was arrested there later by Detective Halls and an officer named Wallace.

He was tried and convicted. While in custody with Sheriff Wolfe and submitted to arrest.

London, Jan. 14.—Another earthquake shock was reported from Rome this morning. People in several quarters of the city are fleeing from their homes.

(Associated Press.)

Rome, Jan. 14.—According to reliable authority not more than one-tenth of the 12,000 inhabitants of Avezzano survived the earthquake yesterday. A member of the Chamber of Deputies said the disaster was more widespread and surpasses in injury to life and limb the Messina disaster. The troops have been sent to assist in the rescue work.

(Associated Press.)

Rome, Italy, Jan. 14.—Official reports from Avezzano declare the dead in that city and vicinity from yesterday's earthquake are more than 15,000.

Every hour gives additional and more accurate details of the horror of yesterday's earthquake. The list of dead increases steadily and the dying and injured now number more than 50,000, according to an official announcement, and the list is expected to grow.

The full extent of the property loss is not yet determined in Rome. Priceless statues, centuries old and many buildings were destroyed.

May Be Less than 1908.

It is thought the loss of life and possible damage to property may be less than that of the Messina disaster in 1908, when the area of disturbance was greater extending from Naples on the south to Ferrara on the north.

King to Scene.

King Emmanuel last night started for Avezzano where 15,000 were killed or wounded. The earthquake belt is 300 miles long, extending from one side of Italy to the other. A number of towns are reported destroyed and special train bearing physicians and nurses have been dispatched to the various places.

Gossip of Week Around National Capital is Told

(By John H. Byers)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—The women were at bat all day at the capitol. Thousands gathered, early and all day long and into the night they occupied all available space in the House galleries. It was their day and they took advantage.

I had occasion a few moments ago to visit the clerk of the U. S. supreme court, a business visit, and in passing through the corridors of the capitol I met hundreds of women—old women, young women, giddy women, pretty women, and women not pretty, attractive women, and women dressed in the height of fashion. I saw the wives and daughters of senators, of house members and the ladies of the cabinet; in fact, there were women from all the homes of the high officials. In the diplomatic gallery were women from the Orient. Nearly all of the foreign countries were represented. I saw none of the White House ladies.

On the House floor members took advantage of the crowded galleries, and many of them entertained with speeches that would cause the orators of the ages gone to blush with shame over their failure in oratory. Again, it was a big day for the ladies.

Colonel Frank O. Lowden and Mrs. Lowden are visiting Washington and are stopping at the Shoreham. The Colonel is feeling fine and Mrs. Lowden is busy calling on her many friends.

While at the union station the other evening to meet Congressman McKenzie I met Miss Ruth Crawford, who was returning from her home to continue her studies at the Colonial School for Girls, one of the city's most fashionable schools. Miss Ruth informed me that she was pleased to get back to the capital, but regretted very much to leave the folks at home. In conversation with Miss Everett, the head of the school, I was told that Miss Ruth is doing well and is one of the popular girls of the institution.

We are having "weather" here. Early last night it started to snow. (Continue on page 2, Col 3)

CENTRAL ORDERS NEW ENGINES

Seventy new engines of superheated type to be used in switching and freight service have been contracted for by the Illinois Central railroad with the American Locomotive company, Pittsburgh, Pa., says the Clinton Public. Fifty of these engines will be of the heavy Mikado type, similar to those now in service and the remaining twenty will be used in switching service.

The freight engines have a weight of drivers of 283,750 pounds and a tractive force of 51,700 pounds, and after they are received by the Illinois Central it will make a total of 250 of the engines in service north of the Ohio river.

The 800 and 900 class engines will be relieved by the new engines, the old ones to be sent to southern lines. The new engines will be delivered in the spring.

Vest Pocket Essays By GEORGE FITCH Author of "A Good Old Siwash"

THE CROWN PRINCE.

No resident of Europe excites more interest in the feverish reader of the daily war news than the Crown Prince of Germany. He will be called upon some day to rule either Europe and large sections of China or the fifth ward of Potsdam—depending upon circumstances of much importance which have been happening in great profusion since last August.

Unfortunately, the hurried correspondents who have been taking notes upon the present hostilities have not had time to compile a biography and description of the Crown Prince for the benefit of his many friends and supporters in this country. Through a careful reading of newspaper articles and perusal of magazine pictures we are now enabled to supply this deficiency and to turn a search light of information upon this eminent character.

The Crown Prince's undressed name is Frederick William. He is the son of Wm. Hohenzollern, a well known character on this planet, and was born in 1882. He was married in 1905 to Duchess Cecilie, and has three sons none of whom have as yet taken an active part in the war.

The Crown Prince is a tall, slender man with a good-natured face and a moustache apparently suffering from mal-nutrition. He wears a long military coat with the two-acre skirt so popular in the German army circles and the typical German helmet provided at the top with a spike as protection against falling aviators.

The Crown Prince is a great horseman, a scholar, a good sport and a tremendous soldier. During the present war he has led armies simultaneously in France and Poland and has been one of the few men in history who have suffered a disastrous defeat, won a brilliant victory, addressed the people from a palace window and passed away quietly in a field hospital all on the same day.

The Crown Prince has led many brilliant field charges, but has also spent his entire time planning the war with a pair of callipers and a map in Berlin. He has been wounded seventeen times, five times in a vital place, has been captured four times and killed twice. He has also fallen from several aeroplanes and is at present chasing Russians and driving his father's automobile through the Rhine country.

Having read the war news faithfully for information regarding this remarkable character, we are not certain whether he is a man or a fraternal order, but present the above conclusions piously and hope for the best.

ASK FOR AID FOR SUFFERING GERMANS

SISTER OF MRS. GEORGE CAMPBELL APPEALS FOR AID FOR WOMEN.

Mrs. George C. Campbell yesterday received the following letter, written to her mother, by Mrs. Tonio Reidemann, a sister of Mrs. Campbell, some of whose interesting letters have been published in the Telegraph. Mrs. Reidemann's letter is an appeal for suffering Germans and if there are any Dixonites who wish to feel that appeal, their contributions may be left with Mrs. Campbell, who will forward them to her sister. The letter to Mrs. Campbell's mother is dated Dec. 15, and is:

"My hand is almost lame from writing letters to friends in America asking for help for our poor unfortunate East Prussians. Poor mothers have had their humble homes destroyed by the cruel Cossacks; now destitute they are thrown at the mercy of the world.

"Darling mother, now I am going to ask you to ask Mr. Heinlein if he couldn't get some money together for these unfortunate ones. If he could collect a little it can be sent through the Standard Oil company. Please send this letter to Rica and perhaps some kind ladies would give a concert or tea to earn a little money for this very good object.

"The Reidemann family have done and are doing all in their power, and so are all the Germans who are able, to alleviate the suffering, but further help is necessary.

"I have over 500 pair of socks, and 100 stomach bands, and 500 pairs of gloves, all of which my girls have knitted. We are now packing them to send to Russia. Erwin came home from duty for two days and told of awful suffering in Russia."

WILL TAKE MOVIES OF WRESTLING BOUT

POLYSCOPE CO. NEGOTIATING
FOR RIGHT TO FILM DIXON MATCH.

"MYSTERY" IS DRAWING CARD

Unknown Wrestler Who Appears
Here is Candidate for High Honors.

The wrestling match at the Dixon Opera House Friday evening between "Mystery" the masked wrestler, and George Shafford, of Chicago, will be recorded on the films of the Selig Polyscope company, in accordance with negotiations undertaken this morning between the movie company and the management of the wrestling show.

Application for the rights to take the moving pictures of the show was made by the Polyscope company on account of the fact that the wide publicity given the masked wrestler throughout the country makes him a desirable feature of the weekly review of events presented by the Selig company.

The action of the famous moving picture house in making an effort to get this match on the records of their films indicates the prominence of the match in the eyes of the sporting world, and testifies to the importance of "Mystery" as an avowed contender for the championship title of the wrestling game.

The reproduction of the film will serve also to record Dixon before the eyes of hundreds of thousands of movie patrons who will view the pictorial record of the match. This fact makes the match a big thing, not alone for the hundreds of wrestling fans who will be in attendance, but also for the city of Dixon generally as an advertisement for the town.

George Shafford arrived in town this noon and spent the afternoon visiting about the city. He still persists in his belief that he knows the identity of "Mystery" and in the hope that it is Schulz, the German navy champion, he is going out after a quick victory tomorrow night.

The seat sale for the match is very brisk. The chart for the opera house is open at Campbell's drug store, and ringside seats are on sale at Campbell's, at Eli's and at the Brunswick bowling alleys. Reservations for the main part of the house may be made through any of these places.

STANLEY'S BIG FEE SCARES SMALL FRY

Two of Robert's Terre Haute Henchmen Go It Alone.

Indianapolis, Jan. 14.—Further parting among members of the Democratic machine in Vigo county was revealed by the federal court record in the Terre Haute case. Maurice Walsh and Bill O'Donnell have withdrawn from the demurrer to the indictment, issued by A. O. Stanley, congressman from Kentucky and chief counsel for Mayor Donn Roberts and other prominent defendants. Both Walsh and O'Donnell have entered pleas of not guilty.

Bill O'Donnell is a wealthy saloon keeper. He does not wish to pay part of the fee that Mr. Stanley receives for appearing in the case. The fee, according to statements made in Washington by Mr. Stanley runs into five figures. A friend of O'Donnell called his attention to the possibility that O'Donnell would have to pay his share in the fee if the demurrer for him was permitted to stand it going to show that Stanley was counsel for O'Donnell.

Dementtown Doings

We opine that a man would be taking desperate chances in marrying a cook. Force of habit might result in her leaving unexpectedly.

And incidentally if a man who possesses one should happen to tell you that his wooden leg pains him occasionally do not laugh. His wife may have been using it on his bean.

There are probably many women in Dixon who will admit that their husbands' love has not grown cold, even though they have been married twenty years. These men undoubtedly love themselves now fully as much as they did then.

Some autos are faster than others. There are many in Dixon who keep several months ahead of their owners' income.

Too Particular.
On a train—it passed through Dixon but we'll allow the reader to guess over which railroad—during the recent cold snap when all trains were more or less late because of the cold and snow, a drummer said pleasantly to the conductor:

"We're going to be late, friend."

"No," growled the conductor in surly tones, "we ain't going to be late either."

"But," continued the traveling man "I thought you said we'd have to stay here three or four hours."

"Well, what of it?" the conductor answered. "We are, but that ain't going to make us late. We don't run so close to time as all that."

Goose Hollow Letter.
Hank Tumms sprung a good one on old Anse Frisby yistiddy when he was talkin' about the youngest darter of old man Hall who is livin' on the Tumm farm, which they bought and fixed up fer a winter and summer resort last year. Hank sez to Anse, sez he, That youngest darter of old Hall's is gittin to be right good lookin. She's as purty as Hebe. And Anse he bristled up an sez, You got durned old fool, she's a blame sight purtier than he be. Why, he's homliern'n that old cow that give him so much trouble in the summer. The girl gits her good looks from her ma's folks.

NEWS FROM NATION'S CAPITAL

later it turned into rain, and the downfall was heavy all night and at this hour it is still raining very hard. I am unable to tell you what kind of weather we will have before night, but if it is not rain it will be something just as bad.

Editorially the Washington Herald said this morning:

"Can't somebody suggest a route by which the exile at Sagamore Hill may get back to the party of his grandfathers?"

Perhaps someone in Dixon can answer that question. It is too big an undertaking for the politicians here to talk.

Billy Sunday and "Ma" Sunday will be guests of the Ministerial Association of Washington on January 18, and thousands will take advantage of the opportunity to hear the evangelist. Sunday is now holding a revival in Philadelphia and that city is all excited over his wonderful sermons. I visited in Philadelphia Christmas Eve for a few hours on my way to Bethlehem, Pa., and a friend of mine remarked that he wondered what Billy would do with the Philadelphia people. Knowing Billy's power as a great converter, I informed my friend that when Billy got started the Quaker city would sit up and take notice. I received a letter from him the other day and he informed me that the old town was torn wide open and the standing room at Sunday's meetings was at a premium.

Does this remind you of Billy? "I believe if the motherhood of this country were no better than the manhood, God would dump the whole thing into hell and quickstop it."

And they flock to hear Billy, and Billy preaches. There is considerable agitation over the rumor that congress is going to vote the District of Columbia dry. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. The domestic sea is already becoming rough. But the fact remains, if the proposition comes up for a vote the result will be dry. Those kind of record votes is what causes a member of congress to almost forget his happy home, but every session there is something like that to go up against, and men are beginning to wonder if it is really a good thing to be a member of congress. Honest members fear not these tests, but the member who desires to please everyone has cause to worry.

4 ILLINOIS SEATS ARE IN JEOPARDY

U. S. Will Probe Alleged Vote Frauds in State.

SENATORSHIPS MAY BE HIT

It is Reported That Proposed Probe, Authorized at Washington, May Include Senate Seats of Senators Sherman of Illinois and Shively of Indiana.

Washington, Jan. 14.—A federal investigation of election frauds in the eastern judicial district of Illinois, including the congressional districts represented in congress by Frank T. O'Hair, William N. Blatz, H. Robert Fowler and Robert P. Hill, will be conducted by Charles A. Karch of Danville, Ill., United States district attorney, with the full force of the department of justice behind it. In reply to a letter from Mr. Karch expressing his belief that frauds were committed in 1912 and 1914 in the eighteenth congressional district, long represented in congress by Mr. Cannon, and possibly in the other districts, where all Democratic incumbents in congress were defeated last November, Assistant Attorney General at William Wallace Jr. has notified Mr. Karch to proceed with his investigation and to call on the department for any assistance he may need.

Four Illinois Seats in Peril.
A complete investigation in Illinois may place in jeopardy the congressional seats in Illinois won at the last election by the following:

Former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon. William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis.

Thomas Williams of Louisville. E. E. Dennison of Marion.

May Affect Senate Seats.

In addition, both in Indiana and Illinois, votes were cast for United States senators simultaneously with congressional candidates, so a cloud may be cast on the title to seats in the senate of Sherman of Illinois and Shively of Indiana.

These Are Some of the Charges.
Among the charges that Mr. Karch will be called on to investigate are the following:

That 127 negro votes were purchased in Danville at the last election. That $25,000 was expended in Vermillion county, in the eighteenth congressional district, $10,000 for organization and $15,000 for vote buying.

That regular pay off stations were maintained on election day in Danville.

That a bribe of $15,000 was offered to E. P. Royse, Progressive candidate for congress in 1912, to withdraw.

That 100 votes were bought in the third ward of Danville.

That "Boaters" from Terre Haute were voted in Paris, Ill.

A re-investigation of the Maguire-Ward case, in which the defendants were acquitted, is sought.

14,000 ARE DEAD IN ITALIAN QUAKE

It is not believed there was any loss of life in Rome.

So far little communication has been had with the heart of the devastated district, where the loss of life was greatest, but from the stories of fleeing refugees, this latest disaster, will rival in horror that of Messina, where 75,000 were killed.

In Rome, a score of miles west of the Abruzzi boundary line, the shock was so terrific as to shatter hundreds of buildings, among them many objects of historic and artistic importance. Thousands of persons fled into the streets, poured over the bridges of the Tiber and into the fields beyond, seeking safety.

Rome Sees Worst Havoc.

From disconnected reports being received here this afternoon, the town of Avezano, sixty-seven miles southeast of Rome was the center of the devastation.

Reports have it that the entire population of 10,000 was wiped out and the town laid in ruins. Capelle, also, fell victim to the shock, as did Magliano, Froshane, Monterotondo, Vailoy, Valmontane and Albano.

The shock came without warning and the inhabitants had no time to flee, but in many instances were crushed to death in their homes.

Immediately after the undulations had ceased here, and the people had been quieted to some extent, hasty preparations were made to dispatch relief corps to the stricken territory.

All Italy to Relief.

All Italy is rallying to the relief of the suffering. The government has detailed several regiments of troops and rushed them out to the stricken zone. Their orders are not only to police the shaken district, but also to do everything they can to aid sufferers. Engineers, scores of physicians and nurses and food and relief necessities have been sent with all haste.

Nearer Rome the situation appears to be less urgent, although in the period directly after the shock the wildest rumors filled the air. These could not be disproved because of the damage done to telephone and telegraph wires. Wires were down to Calabria and Sicily, to the south, as well as to the east, and at first it was generally believed that these two provinces had fared at least as badly as in the eastern district. The wireless soon disproved this, however, although Sicily and Calabria both reported that they had felt sturdy shocks, and that many cupolas had been shaken from buildings.

Prisoners Mutiny.

Later reports indicate that the district worst shaken extends from Rome straight across Italy.

At Frazzati the jail threatened to collapse. As a humane measure it was directed that the convicts be removed under guard to the palace. Strong body guards directed the removal, and when the convicts got out into the streets they attempted to overwhelm the guards. When several of the prisoners had been shot down the removal was concluded.

This town reports that scores of homes were shaken down, but there was little loss of life. After the initial shock the inhabitants fled into the country and this saved many of them from perishing in some of the fires which were started by the earthquake. Torre Castani, a small town near Frazzati, was totally destroyed, with little loss of life.

Help is urgently needed here, and at Sitaduciale, where it is believed overtook her.

that several persons were killed. At Pagliano the cupola of the town hall fell, injuring three persons. Damage here was very great. At Veroli, numerous houses collapsed. Heavy damages were suffered at Rocciapapa.

Naples Slightly Injured.

A heavy shock was felt at Naples, but the actual damage was slight. The population fled to the country.

Many Towns Stricken.

Vesuvius has been emitting loud rumblings since the earthquake and this causes additional fears. Some of the towns which suffered the heaviest damage besides those already mentioned are Fluggi, Trevi, Ripi, Torricella, Ciprano, Filacciano, Fineto, Anticoli, Subiaco, Velletri, Cori, Viterbo and Terracina. These and a score of hamlets were practically wiped out.

Other towns which report heavy damages, but no dead are Albano, Ariccia, Vicovaro, Sonnino, Cervitani, Palestine, Canvito.

ROB BANK AND KILL SHERIFF

Bandits Escape With $3,000 From Teriton, Okla., Institution.

Teriton, Okla., Jan. 14.—Three men robbed the Bank of Teriton, killed a deputy sheriff, wounded two other men, and escaped with $3,000.

As they left the building they encountered Robert Moore, the deputy sheriff, who attempted to stop them. He was shot and killed. Later two members of a posse were slightly wounded by the fire of the bandits.

OLDEST ODD FELLOW DEAD

Thomas Ennis Succumbs at Philo, Ill., Age Eighty-six Years.

Philo, Ill., Jan. 14.—Thomas Ennis, the oldest resident of Philo and said to be the oldest Odd Fellow in America, died at his home here. Ennis was a native of Philadelphia, Pa., and was eighty-six years old. He had been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for sixty-four years and his father, who died in Philo a few years ago, was a charter member of the first lodge of the order organized in this country.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

IF CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

BROKEN EGGS.

A New York investigation of the egg trade brought out from a witness testimony that the breakage of eggs, along with deterioration, costs a loss of $200,000,000 every year.

This is a wastage of nearly 30 per cent. In what other industry is there waste to any such extent as this?

We have been carefully cultivating efficiency in the hen. Had we not better apply some efficiency methods to the egg handler?

Of this loss $50,000,000, it was testified, is in unnecessary breakage in transit. The other $150,000,000 represents breakage after the dealer has received them and depreciation through handling or the necessity of regrading.

Eggs, of course, are the most fragile sort of food stuff. Since Humpty-Dumpty fell off the wall they have been held universally to typify the extreme of fragility. There is bound to be loss. But at the same time this ratio of waste seems out of all proportion to necessity.

The parcel post which with its excellent facilities for immediate and safe transfer from the producer to the consumer, would seem to offer a solution to the puzzle, at least to a large degree.

But, once again, the lack of foresight and care of the people of this country in buying their provisions, operates against the working of the plan.

The average American would rather order his eggs every morning from a downtown store by telephone, though they may have been stored in many months, than to have a fixed arrangement to get them every day fresh from a farm.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED MOST.

It must be remembered that the state and federal veterinarians who are working on the foot and mouth disease in this county are only doing the duty that has been outlined them by their department heads. They are servants of the government and they are simply carrying out the orders they have sworn to obey. If they are not doing right, it is not their fault—the fault lies with the head offices that have outlined the campaign.

If a farmer objects to the way things are done it is of no use for him to abuse the inspector, he must go to the head authorities or to the courts. If the inspector orders a quarantine of a farm, it is the duty of everyone on that farm to respect those orders, for they are backed up by law and he owes it to everyone else in his community to do his utmost to keep the calamity from spreading farther. The observance of quarantine is the most important thing connected with the stamping out of the epidemic, and without the co-operation and friendly aid of the farmers in the community, the men in charge cannot do their work effectively.

If you believe it will be more of an injury to you to have your stock slaughtered by the government than to stand the quarantine, you are perfectly justified in doing everything that is legally within your power to prevent the slaughter, but that does not relieve you from your duty to keep strict quarantine.

THE QUARANTINE IN IOWA.

Clinton Herald: It is largely up to the farmers of Clinton county to determine whether the hoof and mouth quarantine shall be extended to the county limits, or confined to a five-mile zone.

The federal officials have acted conservatively in connection with this new outbreak. Now the farmers have the opportunity to show a spirit of friendly co-operation, and help get rid of the quarantine altogether.

Clinton county is not well situated in respect to the hoof and mouth disease. There is absolute quarantine in counties on three sides of us. Whiteside county is completely overrun with the disease, and probably will not be free for months. Fortunately the river offers something of a bar to transmission, though not to such an extent in winter as in summer. In Cedar county the situation is bad.

Clinton county will be fortunate if there is no further spread of this troublesome malady. It is time for co-operation, not for complaints.

GOOD FOR THESE TWO.

A Wyoming stock raiser, H. J. Newton, recently refused to sell horses to European powers. He did not propose to have any of his horses lying with broken legs on the battlefield.

A St. Louis steel manufacturer, Clarence H. Howard, has turned down a $2,500,000 order for shrapnel because all the steel plants in the world "are not so wonderful or so valuable as one human life with a soul wrapped in it."

Selling contraband to warring powers is a matter for the individual conscience. The American government cannot, with regard for its present neutrality or future necessity of purchasing abroad in its own defense, abolish sales of horses or firearms, but Americans generally will be quick to honor men who will neither sacrifice dumb animals to torture nor amass wealth by selling instruments of murder.

A Freeport man agreed that he would mount the water wagon on New Year's day and promised his doting wife he would not take a drink during 1915, unless it was to cure a cold. He is now wearing summer underwear.

The federal agricultural department says that salt will kill dandelions. That reminds us of the fellow who burned a house to cook an egg. Salt will also kill the grass.

Someone, probably someone who has had bitter experience, advises, "do not fall off the water wagon yet. The ground is too hard."

If you have a good cow you better put her in a dry well and feed her through a filter.

The farms of the United States produced eighty-three million dollars more in 1914 than in 1913. Now for a better record in 1915.

How about that union high school? The sooner Dixon starts to work on that proposition, the sooner will it be accomplished.

MOCK MARRIAGE
RUSE OF PASTOR

Rev Darnell's Victims Explain Misuse of Licenses.

BOGUS CEREMONY IS CHARGED

Miss Ethel Spurgeon, Avon, Ill., in First Statement Tells How She Was Duped—Never Returned Licenses to County Clerks—Government Probes for Mann Act Case.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—In her first authorized statement, given out at Galesburg, Miss Ethel Spurgeon of Avon, Ill., reputed first wife of Rev. James Morrison Darnell, declared that she had been a victim of a mock marriage with the minister.

"I am afraid it is true that I was not legally married to Mr. Darnell, although I did not know it at the time nor for several months," she said. "After we went to Chicago to get married on Dec. 11, 1911, we visited the county clerk's office and obtained a marriage license. From there we went to a private home where Mr. Darnell said some of his friends resided. The ceremony was performed by a man who represented himself to be a minister. I do not now remember the minister's name nor the place where the ceremony was performed."

Marriage Certificate Gone. "We were given a marriage certificate which I supposed was all right. Mr. Darnell has this in his possession, which leaves me with no proof of our marriage. All the time I lived with him in Owatonna I believed I was his legal wife and I endeavored in every way to perform my duties as such."

"I had not lived with him long there, however, until I began to suspect that he was paying attention to another woman. Shortly after I came home to visit my parents in Avon and while here I received a letter purporting to come from a lawyer in Minneapolis, which stated that my marriage to Darnell was illegal and that I was not his lawful wife."

Two Licenses Issued.

Delving into the past of Rev. James Morrison Darnell, the much married Kenosha minister, whose third wife, Mrs. Doris Vaughn Darnell, sacrificed herself for the sake of the baby of Mrs. Ruth Soper Darnell, attaches of the state's attorney's office found records of two marriage licenses issued to the minister within three years. This is said to clinch the charge of bigamy, and prosecution of the pastor is to follow.

The federal government is delving into the case for a violation of the Mann act.

Records of the county clerk's office show that the first license was issued Dec. 12, 1911, to marry Miss Ethel Spurgeon. There was no return. The second license was issued to marry Miss Dorris Vaughn on Oct. 28, 1914. There was no return. The next step in the investigation will be to locate the ministers who performed the ceremony. No record of his marriage to Ruth Soper, the mother of a five months old child, was found. Little Doris Vaughn Darnell sat in her mother's home at 4301 Oakwood avenue, her eyes dry but heavy with the grime of life as just revealed to her, and said with slow emphasis that she had decided to give up her pastor husband for the benefit of that other girl with her tiny infant.

"I love him—indeed I love him," she said earnestly. "I think I shall never stop loving him. But that other poor girl needs him more than I do. So I will give him up."

Mrs. Margaret Dorman is visiting in Polo.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Eichler are visiting in Freeport.

Notes

FAMILY THEATRE.

Two acts of vaudeville and three reels of pictures will be shown at the Family for the balance of the week, commencing this evening. The vaudeville consists of the Three Vestoffs, a high class European dancing and musical novelty embracing the latest society dances and selections on the piano, violin and cello. This act is a decided novelty and one that should not be overlooked. The Gate City Trio play a return engagement with their appearance in tonight's bill and this will afford all lovers of harmony and comedy much pleasure. During their former engagement they delighted their hearers' pictures tonight are: The Mile of Life, featuring Maurice Costello; Hearts of Gold, and Snakeville and The Demonstration.

"THE RED WIDOW"

"The Red Widow" the delightful musical comedy that was one of the past season's marvelous metropolitan successes, is to be the attraction at the opera house tonight. It comes to us with a cast of cosmopolitan favorites who in the several song numbers are said to be most pleasing. All the original Astor theater, New York scenic embellishments, stage effects and sartorial appointments, the latter of a high pleasing order, will be brought along. The company numbers nearly three score people.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

The sixth episode of Zudora will be shown at the Princess tonight. In this episode a deadly plot is laid by a jealous husband to kill his wife's brother whom he thinks is her lover and falls into the trap himself. Zudora is called upon to solve the mystery. The forty-fourth series of "Our Mutual Girl" will also be shown and a Keystone comedy entitled "A Halted Career."

Mrs. John Gentry of Amboy spent yesterday with Mrs. J. W. Pine on Route 2.

AT THE END.

We do our little stunt on earth, and when it's time to die, "The ice we cut has little worth—we wasted time," we sigh. When one has snow above his ears, and age has chilled his veins, he looks back on the vanished years, his spirit racked with pains. However well he may have done, it all seems trifling then; alas, if he could only run his little course again! He would not then so greatly prize the sordid silver plunk; for when a man grows old and wise, he knows that coin is junk. One kindly action of the past, if such you can recall, will soothe you greatly at the last when memory is all. If you have helped some pilgrim climb from darkness and despair, that action, in your twilight time, will ease your weight of care. The triumphs of your business day, by stealth or sharpness gained, will seem, when you are tired and gray, to leave your record stained. Ah, comrade, in the dusk of life, when you have ceased your grind, when all the strategy and strife are left for aye behind, when you await the curtain's fall, the setting of the sun, how you will struggle to recall the good that you have done!

MAY ADOPT NEW ROAD-OILING METHOD

COMMISSIONER SCHULER FAVORS WAY WORK IS DONE IN THE WEST.

The full council met in adjourned session this morning and in connection with the board of local improvements, let the three sewer contracts, under local improvements Nos. 170, 171 and 172, to Eli B. Lloyd, who was the only bidder. His bids were printed in Monday's Telegraph.

Commissioner Schuler, who has been on an extended visit in the west, was in his chair. He brought some interesting and valuable information on road building, gained on his travels. One feature of the information is that in using oil on roads in California, heavy oil (which is very cheap there) is flooded over the rock foundation of the road, then covered with a dressing of ground or fine granite and rolled. Another coat of oil is then spread and about two inches more of fine gravel is then spread over the oil and rolled, but no oil is put on top. The oil soaks up through the road and makes it black and smooth. Oil thus applied does not wash or wear away, but stays in the road throughout the life of the highway.

It is likely that experiments in this sort of road building with oil will be made in Dixon this summer. Certain macadam streets in the city may be treated by raking the top dressing to both sides of the road, applying the oil and replacing the top dressing. This, when rolled down, it is believed, will make a much better roadway than that which has the oil simply spread over the top.

FINED $3 AND COSTS.

James Booy was arraigned before Justice Hanneken this morning on a charge of drunkenness and assessed a fine of $3 and costs.

POLICE ARRESTED FREEPORT BOYS

Chief Root of Freeport came this morning and took back with him two boys picked up in Dixon yesterday afternoon by Sergeants Gaffney, giving their names as Fred Little and Albert Young. One of the boys had been employed in the Becker garage at Freeport and when he left several inner tubes were missed. It was found that the tubes had been sold in Freeport for $2.50 and with the money the lads came here Tuesday. Their finances soon ran low and one boy wrote to an elder brother in Freeport for money, and in this way they were located and their arrest followed.

Their father is sick and the girls made the 150 mile trip alone. "A nice big policeman" helped them change trains at Chicago, they say.

and in the morning start off again in a solid formation.

"I am told that this method of marching has proved a great puzzle to the German airmen in trying to estimate the number of troops that are moving. When the columns are so strung out it is almost impossible to and Illinois made to foot the bill.

His letter in part follows:

"Cattle contagion has declared war on the United States and has infected sixteen of its states. By reason of the geographical location of this state, in the heart of the Mississippi Valley, and by reason of the fact that it contains within its borders two of the greatest livestock markets in the world, one at Chicago and the other at East St. Louis, into this state have been sent the cattle first infected and there is strong liability that other infected animals from outside states will be shipped into this state and thus further endanger its livestock industry."

Dyson Gives Warning.

The letter to the president was accompanied by a report made to the governor by Dr. O. E. Dyson, state veterinarian, in which he says:

"The failure of any state to eradicate hoof and mouth disease within the next few months virtually means that the infection will become as firmly established in this nation as it has been in the old world for many decades. The outcome would be the paralyzing of the livestock industry of the United States.

Therefore, I am convinced the federal government should assume the economic burden of wiping out the disease.

Representative Homer J. Tice of Greenview has called a conference today of members of the legislature in whose districts the disease has made its appearance. The legislators will discuss what can be done to remove the infection.

In connection with the opening of the Dupage county grand jury inquiry in Wheaton, States Attorney C. W. Hadley at night said he had been deluged with charges by farmers and cattle owners against state officials and that he believed an extraordinary situation existed.

"Charges have been made to me that the state officials have been lax in establishing quarantines, that they have permitted the removal of animals from farms after portions of the herds had been slaughtered because of infection, and that the state board of livestock commissioners isn't doing its duty," he said.

"The farmers of Dupage county are greatly stirred by the situation.

"They have been given worthless slips of paper by assistant state veterinarians when infected or exposed animals have been slaughtered, and as a result many, particularly those who are renters, are in financial difficulties. Their cattle are about all the property that the latter possess.

"The grand jury will attempt to find out whether the wholesale slaughter has been an unreasonable means of procedure and whether charges of irregularities are borne out by the facts."

Aid Injunction Move.

County Judge Wm. A. Blodgett of Whiteside county and his predecessor, A. A. Wolfersperger, during the day visited Charles J. O'Connor, attorney for the Fox River Valley cattle owners and dairymen, who on Monday obtained a preliminary injunction restraining the state from the further slaughter of cattle and from entering into contracts to do so and pledged the support of farmers of that county. The two attorneys will appear as associate counsel with Mr. O'Connor when the hearing on the present permanent injunction is held.

Mr. Blodgett and Mr. Wolfersperger, in whose county $12,000 worth of animals already have been slaughtered, declared cattle owners there had raised a big fund to fight further stock killing, and that they came to Chicago at the request of members of the board of supervisors of Whiteside county.

They are particularly interested in saving three herds, one of which is estimated to be worth $150,000.

Another attorney representing the dairy cattle owners who will join Mr. O'Connor is Asa Q. Reynolds of Chicago.

Hundreds of tax payers in Kane, Dupage, Whiteside and Carroll counties have requested that they be permitted to join in an amended injunction proceeding and dairymen over the state have been obtaining copies of Judge Irwin's order to tack on the barns for protection in the event that the federal or state inspectors attempt to appraise or slaughter their cattle.

U.S. FIXES SIZE OF BARREL

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—For the first time in history the federal government will exercise its constitutional control of the weights and measures of the country under a bill agreed to today by the House establishing a standard barrel for fruits, vegetables, and other dry commodities. The bill already has passed the Senate.

The standard barrel bill, introduced by Representative Tuttle, provides for a barrel with 28½ inch staves and 17 1-8 inch heads. However, any barrel having a capacity of 7,056 cubic inches will be considered standard.

A separate standard is fixed for cranberry barrels.

Miss Neva McCleary went to Chicago this morning for a short visit.

MAN MUST DISCLOSE IF WIFE PAYS BILLS

NEW INCOME TAX FORMS DELVE INTO FAMILY CLOSETS FOR SECRETS.

Married persons will doubtless be interested when they look over the new forms for income tax returns by individuals. Questions they would like to keep hidden secrets are asked and as a result considerable indignation is expected to develop before the final blanks have been returned on March 31.

If a man is married and dependent upon his wife's income for a living—a most indelicate thing to ask any man so situated—it must be written down on the income tax report. Also married persons must disclose in writing whether they are living together or separated.

Is Greater Puzzle.

The new form is No. 1040 (revised), and replaces No. 1040 popularly known as the "1040 puzzle." The new form is even more puzzling than the old one in some respects, in that its questions insist upon facts for answers, not evasions. Under each separate classification a man's income and a woman's must be recorded separately. The same division applies to deductions of exempt assets.

The theory, according to J. F. Smetanka, revenue collector, is that husband and wife are entitled to $4,000 exemption jointly if living together and $3,000 each if they are permanently separated.

Will Reveal Skeletons.

Careless persons will be embarrassed by the first question on the new form, which is, "Did you render a return of income for the past year?" The second is, "If so, what internal revenue district was it filed in?" And then follow questions revealing family skeletons. They are:

"Were you single or married, with wife or husband living with you, on December 31 of the year for which this return is rendered?"

"If married, give full name of your wife or husband."

"Has your wife or husband income from sources independent of your own?"

"Have you included your wife or husband's income in this return?"

In case separate returns are made by husband and wife and the exemption is prorated, the amount claimed by each is to be stated separately. In this way the collector is enabled to check one against the other to see that only $4,000 has been claimed in the two returns.

BIG MILITARY FACTOR IS "JACK" JOHNSON

Carranza Threatens to Deport Villla's Jaurez Attraction.

El Paso, Jan. 14.—Jack Johnson, heavy weight champion of the world, will be seized the moment he lands at a Mexican port, provided that port is held by Carranza troops, and all Mexican seaports are at present in possession of the Carranza government. Unless he can show passports from the American state department he will be held pending orders of the American authorities. Johnson is expected to sail from Buenos Ayres for either Vera Cruz or Tampico on his way to Juarez, where he is scheduled to fight Jess Willard on March 6 for the heavy weight championship of the world. Both Tampico and Vera Cruz, as well as Matamoros, are held by Carranzistas. Johnson can not enter Juarez through this country, as federal indictments stand against him, charging him with bail jumping.

The move to detain Johnson has been taken by Andres Garcia, Carranza consul here. He has sent a telegram to Carranza, in which he calls attention to the fact that Johnson is a fugitive from justice and that the Juarez fight will go to swell the Villa war chests. "Therefore," the telegram concludes, "I suggest that unless he shows passports from the United States government he be detained awaiting the pleasure of the United States government."

Assurances have been received that it will be acted upon favorably. The campaign against Tampico, will, in all probability, decide whether or not the fight is to be held. If Villa captures a seaport in time the fight will be held.

Will Kimes and Clinton Lindeman of E. J. Ferguson's hardware store spent Wednesday in attendance at the hardware men's convention, and today E. J. Ferguson and W. C. Struckman are at the convention.

VERBAL VITRIOL IN BORAK'S REPLY TO PRESIDENTS WILSON

SENATOR CALLS WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY "NO POLICY AT ALL."

PUTS WILSON IN BOSS CLASS

Lines Him Up With Tom Taggart of Indiana and Murphy of Tammany.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Accepting the challenge by President Wilson in his Indianapolis speech, Republican senators who are reputed to be presidential candidates fired the opening guns of the 1916 campaign today.

Senator Borah of Idaho, whose nomination for the presidency is favored by a large element of the Republican party delivered a comprehensive reply to the Indianapolis speech.

Denunciation of the president's Mexican policy and of Mr. Wilson's view of the blood spilling in the southern republic, the senator landed out unsparringly and finally in reply to a Democratic challenge and animadversion upon his reputed ambitions he told how he would handle the vexed question if he were president.

Senator Borah called the president's policy no policy at all. Instead of keeping hands off, as he advocated at Indianapolis, Mr. Wilson, Senator Borah said, actually intervened to oust Huerta, sought to reform the Mexican land laws, waged a war a Vera Cruz, played one faction off against the other until the only semblance of government was destroyed and permitted the murder of 250 Americans.

In connection with Mr. Wilson's statement that Mexico should be allowed to spill all the blood it pleases, the senator compared the president to bloody Marat, the French revolutionist.

Mr. Borah said that if he were president he would keep hands off Mexico, but would make it plain that if Americans and their possessions were not respected the United States would march in and protect them.

Put Wilson in "Boss" Class.

In admonishing Democratic senators to heed the signals of the captain of the administration football team, the president, the senator said, had enunciated a principle of corrupt politics and placed himself in the same class as Tom Taggart of Indiana and Boss Murphy of Tammany.

In contravention of the president's assertion that the Republican party has not had a new idea in 30 years, Mr. Borah reviewed the progressive legislature enacted over Democratic opposition by Republican majorities in congress.

Christmas Savings Club Suggestions

FROM OTHER CITIES

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUBS—such as we are conducting, are very popular in many other cities and towns in this and other states.

IN SEVERAL CITIES:

100 or more members of a congregation have joined and will use their combined savings as a fund next Christmas toward paying church debts.

IN SEVERAL TOWNS:

The members of Sunday School classes have joined, and in each instance will club together and use the money for the purpose of buying their teacher a present.

IN OTHER TOWNS:

Societies, Churches, Sunday Schools, Charity and other organizations have joined to save money for a specific purpose.

THE plan is an excellent one, and can be applied to a number of commendable enterprises. The small amounts payable weekly into the Club can be spared by each person without inconvenience, and when a number of persons associate together for a special purpose, the combined results of their efforts will be a large sum which may be applied as a Christmas offering, or used in other ways for a good cause.

The Exploits of Elaine

A Detective Novel and a Motion Picture Drama

By ARTHUR B. REEVE
The Well-Known Novelist and the Creator of the "Craig Kennedy" Stories

Presented in Collaboration With the Pathe Players and the Eclectic Film Company

Copyright, 1914, by the Star Company. All Foreign Rights Reserved.

If it had been a bomb I could not have been more surprised.

I could not make it out. Kennedy impatiently worked the receiver up and down, repeating the number. "Hello—hello," he repeated. "Yes—hello. Is Miss—oh—good morning, Miss Dodge."

He was hurrying along as if to give her no chance to cut him off. "I have just received a letter, Miss Dodge, telling me that you don't want me to continue investigating your father's death, and not to try to see you again about—"

He stopped. I could hear the reply. "Why—no—Mr. Kennedy, I have written you no letter."

The look of mingled relief and surprise that crossed Craig's face spoke volumes.

"Miss Dodge," he almost shouted, "this is a new trick of the 'Clutching Hand.' I—I'll be right over."

Craig hung up the receiver and turned from the telephone. Evidently he was thinking deeply. Suddenly his face seemed to light up. He made up his mind to something, and a moment later he opened the cabinet—that inexhaustible storehouse from which he seemed to draw weird and curious instruments that met the ever new problems which his strange profession brought to him.

I watched curiously. He took out a bottle and what looked like a little hypodermic syringe, thrust them into his pocket and, for once, oblivious to my very existence, deliberately walked out of the laboratory.

I did not propose to be thus cavalierly dismissed. I suppose it would have looked ridiculous to a third party, but I followed him as hastily as if he had tried to shut the door on his own shadow.

We arrived at the corner above the Dodge house just in time to see another visitor—Bennett—enter.

"And, Perry," we heard Elaine say, as we were ushered in, "someone has even forged my name—the handwriting and everything—telling Mr. Kennedy to drop the case—and I never knew."

She stopped as we entered. "That's the limit!" exclaimed Bennett. "Miss Dodge has just been telling me—"

"Yes," interrupted Craig. "Look, Miss Dodge, this is it."

He handed her the letter. She almost seized it, examining it carefully, her large eyes opening wider in wonder.

"This is certainly my writing and my note paper," she murmured, "but I never wrote the letter!"

Craig looked from the letter to her keenly. No one said a word. For a moment Kennedy hesitated, thinking.

"Might I—er—see your room, Miss Dodge?" he asked at length.

"Why, certainly," nodded Elaine, as she led the way upstairs.

It was a dainty little room, breathing the spirit of its mistress. In fact, it seemed a sort of profanity as we all followed in after her. For a moment Kennedy stood still, then he carefully looked about. At the side of the bed, near the head, he stooped and picked up something which he held in the palm of his hand. I bent over. Something gleamed in the morning sunshine—some little thin pieces of glass. As he tried deftly to fit the tiny little bits together he seemed absorbed in thought. Quickly he raised it to his nose, as if to smell it.

"Ethyl chloride!" he muttered, wrapping the pieces carefully in a paper and putting them inside his pocket.

An instant later he crossed the room to the window and examined it. "Look!" he exclaimed.

There, plainly, were marks of a jimmy which had been inserted near the lock to pry it open.

"Miss Dodge," he asked, "might I—might I trouble you to let me see your arm?"

Wonderingly she did so, and Kennedy bent almost reverently over her plump arm examining it.

On it was a small dark discoloration, around which was a slight redness and tenderness.

"That," he said slowly, "is the mark of a hypodermic needle."

As he finished examining Elaine's arm he drew the letter from his pocket. Still facing her he said in a low tone, "Miss Dodge—you did write this letter—but under the influence of the new 'twilight sleep.'"

"Why, Craig," I exclaimed excitedly, "what do you mean?"

"Exactly what I say. With Miss Dodge's permission I shall show you."

By a small administration of the drug, which will insure you in no way, Miss Dodge, I think I can bring back the memory of all that occurred to you last night. Will you allow me?"

"Mercy, no!" protested her Aunt Josephine, who had entered the room. "I want the experiment to be tried," Elaine said quietly.

A moment later Kennedy had placed her on a couch in the corner of the room.

"Now, Mrs. Dodge," he said, "please bring me a basin and a towel."

Aunt Josephine, reconciled, brought them. Kennedy dropped an antiseptic tic tablet into the water and carefully sterilized Elaine's arm just above the spot where the red mark showed. Then he drew the hypodermic from his pocket—carefully sterilized it, also, and filling it with scopolamin from the bottle.

"Just a moment, Miss Dodge," he encouraged, as he jabbed the needle into her arm.

She did not wince. "Please lie back on the couch," he directed. Then turning to us he added, "It takes some time for this to work. Our criminal got over this fact and prevented an outcry by using ethyl chloride first. Let me reconstruct the scene."

As we watched Elaine going under slowly Craig talked.

NOTICE OF AWARD OF CONTRACT

PUBLIC NOTICE

is hereby given that the Board of Local Improvements and Council of the City of Dixon, in the County of Lee and State of Illinois, at a joint meeting of said Board and Council held in the Council Chamber in the City Hall in the City of Dixon at 11 o'clock in the forenoon on Thursday, the 14th day of January, A. D. 1915, awarded a contract for the furnishing of all materials, tools, machinery and labor for, and the construction of vitrified tile pipe sewer with manholes, flushing tank and house connection laterals on Fourth Street in the City of Dixon as provided for in the City of Dixon Local Improvement Ordinance Number 172, Series of 1914, to Eli B. Lloyd of Dixon, Illinois.

That said Eli B. Lloyd was considered by said Board and Council to be the lowest responsible bidder who submitted a proposal to furnish all materials, tools, machinery and labor for the construction of said improvement.

That the price at which said Eli B. Lloyd was awarded said contract is approximate quantities:

530 linear feet of 8" sewer pipe (complete) at Sixty-four (64) cents per linear foot.

That said Board and Council will on or after the 26th day of January, A. D. 1915, enter into a contract with the said Eli B. INDIGESTION GAS OR SICK, SOUR STOMACH

TIME "PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN." IN FIVE MINUTES ALL STOMACH MISERY IS GONE.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what your eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath is foul; tongue is coated; your insides filled with the indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—at last marvelous, and the joy is it's harmless.

A large fifty-cent crate of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

TIRED, WEAK AND NERVOUS

WHY ARE SO MANY DIXON PEOPLE IN THIS CONDITION?

Feel tired out, irritable and depressed

Urine irregular; back weak and painful?

These are symptoms that suggest kidney trouble.

When the kidneys call for help.

Assist them with a tested kidney remedy.

No remedy is more highly recommended than Kidney Pills.

Backed by home testimony.

Endorsed by Dixon people.

Mrs. E. Bott, 811 College avenue,

Dixon, says: "We recommend Doan's

Kidney Pills just as highly now as we did some years ago when we first gave a public statement in their praise. I was rheumatic and most of the pain was through my back and kidneys. At night I didn't sleep well and in the morning was all tired out. I was nervous and dizzy and my kidneys were out of order. I tried different remedies, but wasn't helped until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Leake Bros.

drug store. They made me strong and well."

Mrs. Bott is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's

Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Bott had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50 cents all stores. Foster-

GERMANS ADVANCE IN WEST

Energetic Offensive Continues Against Soissons and Neuport.

Paris, Jan. 14.—A great battle is raging at Soissons, the point in the German lines nearest to Paris. Both sides have been largely reinforced and have alternated in holding the upper hand. The official communique of the French war office indicates that the allies still hold the villages of Crouy and are continuing their offensive with partial success.

The German general staff announces the capture of trenches in the suburbs of Neuport, the complete defeat of the French near Crouy and Bessie (probably Crouy and Curries, near Soissons) with the capture of 1,700 troops. A French attack near St. Mihiel was repulsed and the Germans advanced near Nomeny.

RUSS GAIN IN EAST PRUSSIA

Several Villages Are Captured—German Attacks Repulsed in Poland.

London, Jan. 14.—The Russian general staff tells officially of further advances in East Prussia and the capture of several villages including one in the Mazurian lake defensive arrangements.

All German attacks in Poland were repulsed and the Russians are advancing southwest from Mlawa, in northern Poland. It is reported that the Germans have begun to retire in the Bzura region.

She Wasn't Cheated.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 14.—Probate Judge Church has decided against the claim of Mrs. Minnie Doll of Peoria, who alleged that Frederick Doll, her deceased husband, cheated her out of a fortune, and asked for $25,000 on the basis of an alleged agreement.

High Prices for Farm Land.

Zanes, Ill., Jan. 14.—One hundred and eight acres of improved farm land, three miles north of this town, a part of the Milton Douglas estate, was sold at $144 per acre to Henry Lohner of New Berlin at a master in chancery sale.

Danville, Ill., Jan. 14.—Orville W. Cannon, nephew of Congressman-elect Joseph G. Cannon, died here of cancer of the throat. Cannon's first wife was a daughter of Congressman-elect W. E. McKinley. They were divorced.

Girls Lead Boys.

Shelbyville, Ill., Jan. 14.—Girls and boys—that is, the new ones—ran a close race in Shelby county during 1914, with the girls slightly in the lead. Of the 633 births, 314 were boys and 319 were girls.
